

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS:

EAPL-S TRAVEL GRANTS 2026

The EAPL is pleased to offer a total of four travel grants to attend the EAPL 2026 conference in Bari, Italy: one grant for a student or early-career researcher from a low to middle income economy, and three smaller travel grants for students.

See below for further details on the available grants and how to apply.

ONE TRAVEL GRANT FOR MEMBERS FROM LOW TO MIDDLE INCOME ECONOMIES

The EAPL is able to offer one travel grant for one student or early-career researcher from a low to middle income economy to attend the EAPL 2026 conference in Bari, Italy. This travel grant will cover 80% of travel costs (travel and accommodation) up to a value of € 500 each. Only the cheapest, reasonable travel and accommodation option will be covered.

Applicants must meet the following requirements:

- ✓ Applicants must be either Master's students, PhD students or early-career researchers/postdocs (up to two years after obtaining their PhD).
- ✓ Applicants must be enrolled or employed at a university in a low or middle income economy (please refer to the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development \(OECD\) list to determine eligibility).
- ✓ Applicants must be a member of the EAPL (become a member here).
- ✓ Applicants must have received an acceptance of their abstract as presenting author for an oral presentation or a presentation within a symposium at the EAPL 2026 conference in Bari, Italy.
- ✓ Applicants must detail other possible travel funds available (e.g. through their university/department).

In order to apply for the travel grants you will have to submit the following documents:

- ▶ CV: A Curriculum Vitae including appropriate contact information,
- ▶ Abstract: The abstract that was accepted as oral presentation or presentation within a symposium at the EAPL 2026 conference. Please visit the EAPL 2026 conference website for further details and abstract submission and acceptance deadlines.
- ▶ Motivation letter: A short motivation letter (max. 1000 words) outlining the presentation you are planning on giving at the conference, how the attendance of the EAPL 2026 conference will benefit you and your professional goals, as well as a description of the financial need and (lack of) funding from other sources (e.g. your own university/department) to cover travel and accommodation costs for the conference,
- ▶ Proof of enrolment/employment: Proof of enrolment or employment at a university in a low or middle income economy based on the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) classification.

Please e-mail your complete submission by June 7th, 2026, to eaplstudent@gmail.com indicating "Travel grant application" in the subject of your email. Incomplete submissions will not be considered. Successful applicants will be notified by June 14th, 2026.

SMALL TRAVEL GRANTS

Additionally, the EAPL can offer three small travel grants to students to attend the EAPL 2026 conference in Bari, Italy. These travel grants will amount to €250 each and are intended to support attending students with their travel and accommodation costs.

Applicants must meet the following requirements:

- ✓ Applicants must be either Bachelor's students, Master's students or PhD students,
- ✓ Applicants must be a member of the EAPL (become a member here),
- ✓ Applicants must have received an acceptance of their abstract as presenting author for an oral presentation or a presentation within a symposium at the EAPL 2026 conference in Bari, Italy.
- ✓ Applicants must detail other possible travel funds available (e.g. through their university/department).

In order to apply for the travel grants you will have to submit the following documents:

- ▶ CV: A Curriculum Vitae including appropriate contact information.
- ▶ Abstract: The abstract that was accepted as oral presentation or presentation within a symposium at the EAPL 2026 conference. Please visit the EAPL 2026 conference website for further details and abstract submission and acceptance deadlines.
- ▶ Motivation letter: A short motivation letter (max. 1000 words) outlining the presentation you are planning on giving at the conference, how the attendance of the EAPL 2026 conference will benefit you and your professional goals, as well as a description of the financial need and (lack of) funding from other sources (e.g. your own university/department) to help with travel and accommodation costs for the conference.
- ▶ Proof of enrolment: Proof of enrolment as either a Bachelor's student, Master's student or PhD student.

Please e-mail your complete submission by June 7th, 2026, to eaplstudent@gmail.com indicating "Small travel grant application" in the subject of your email. Incomplete submissions will not be considered. Successful applicants will be notified by June 14th, 2026.